Changing the Game Grant from Stanley

Application Deadline: July 31, 2026

The The Changing the Game Grant, spearheaded by lifestyle brand Stanley, women's sports media company Together and Honeycomb Credit, offers five, $20,000 grants to for-profit businesses that are centering women sports in their food and beverage business.

That means any bar, restaurant, cafe, event venue or community space that highlights women's sports as the main event (not a secondary broadcast or afterthought, the program specifically states). Business owners will need to apply with a clear vision for how the business will be a hub for women's sports fans, with a wellness and inclusive approach to food, beverage and hospitality and a specific plan for how to use the $20,000.

Owners have until July 31 to complete their application, with the five grantees announced in October.
